Dear [redacted]

STAT

Many thanks for the photo-album and the recording of the comedy and musical highlights from the special showing of your television party, "25 Years of LIFE."

I was sorry that Clover and I were unable to join you on this particular occasion. However, it was very thoughtful of you to send us this as a souvenir of the evening.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Dear:

STAT

It gives me the greatest pleasure to write this letter of congratulations to you on the occasion of the celebration of the Centennial of the Watertown Times. This has been an outstanding accomplishment in the field of journalism over the last century.

As a native of Watertown, one of the earliest recollections since I began to read, was the daily arrival of the Times at our home. Through it, in those early days at the turn of the century, I was helped to gain an interest in international affairs, since the Times, even in the days when America was paying too little note to what went on abroad, was always outstanding in its coverage of important world affairs.

Since I have been in Washington over the past ten years, I have remained in close touch with
